Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Taylor Sonnenschein and Sarah Winters will begin their new life together as they exchange their wedding vows to be united as one on June 17, 2005, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newlywed couple are the children of Dennis Winters and David and Susanne Ruhnke and Gaylord and Cathy Sonnenschein; and,

Whereas, They have dated for 13 years and are committed to sharing life's beauty and sorrow and grow to love one another in their common interests; and,

Whereas, Taylor and Sarah are committed to each other, the state of South Dakota and this community in that Sarah is the owner/operator of a private business in Pierre and Taylor raises cattle on the family ranch in Stanley County; and,

Whereas, Through a promise of lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Taylor and Sarah will help make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates this memorable time in their lives:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 17, 2005, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
